Contributions to Section 19 should include information under all pertinent headings. Although there is no separate heading for deficiencies, they should be noted in the discussion of each topic under C, Maps and charts.

Recently prepared Sections 19 should be used as a guide in determining the form of presentation and the amount of detail required. Your attention is also called to the NIS Standard Instructions, Chapter I Outline and Outline Guide, p. I-3:

Each subsection is to be a succinct summary of the salient topics covered in one or more of the sections of the corresponding chapter of NIS.
